10th May 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

The week beginning the 13th May 2019 is National Tests week (SATs). We would like your child to be fully prepared.

You can help your child by:

- Ensuring your child is in school on time (8:50am)
- Making sure they get enough sleep, rest and relaxation.
- Making sure they eat breakfast particularly on assessment days.
- Encouraging them to ask their teacher if they are unsure of anything.
- Explaining that SATs are only a way of showing what they know.

The school will provide the children with snacks throughout the week to boost the children's energy levels! Please do not hesitate to get in touch with the school if you have any questions or concerns.

Thanks for your continued support.
