Dear Parent/Carer,

Welcome and Diary Update

It is a privilege to be able to introduce myself as the new Head Teacher at Ingleby Mill Primary School, a role I am honoured to have been given.

I had a lovely start to school last week, initially meeting the amazing staff team on Wednesday and then spending two wonderful days with the children. Their excitement to return to school after the Christmas break was gorgeous to see and testament to the children and the relationships fostered by the whole team at Ingleby Mill. This week has been no different, the children have settled beautifully back into routines.

It has been lovely to meet so many of you on the gate and I can't thank you enough for the warm welcome I received - I already feel at home. If you haven't already, please do come and say hello, I am looking forward to meeting you all.

Early Diary Date

I fully appreciate how busy you all are and wanted to give you advanced notice for this term's Parental Consultations. These will take place on Monday 12th and Wednesday 14th February 2024, further information about how to book will be sent out nearer the time.

We will have more diary dates for you in January's newsletter to enable you to forward plan.

I am so excited to get started, here's to a wonderful Spring Term.

Yours sincerely

Janis Williams
Head Teacher
